

TRAINING FILE

VEA

GOALS

- ✓ KNOWLEDGE: Identify the characteristics and risks of the new energies on board vehicles and know the intervention procedures (SR and fire).
- ✓ KNOW-HOW: The General Road Rescue Operations Procedure, how to apply the 5I rule, how to carry out extrication techniques safely, taking into account the following factors the risks associated with vehicle carburation.
- ✓ KNOW HOW TO BE: Be able to fit in with a roadside rescue team, be a driving force behind the team. Proposing and guaranteeing the safety of yourself, the victims and the entire rescue system during extrication operations on an alternative energy vehicle.

PUBLIC

Firefighter or member of an intervention team performing extrication.

PREREQUISITES

Have a minimum level of roadside rescue experience.

WORKFORCE

Minimum 6 people
Maximum 12 people

LOCATION

La Sucrierie du Hameau
5, route de Laon
Saint Germainmont - France

PROGRAM

Identifying the various factors that can make a situation worse and making a hazardous area safe.

Using individual and collective protective equipment.

Identify the victim level of incarceration, draw up exit plans based on the victim condition and the dangers associated with the vehicle.

Search for information specific to the vehicle, practice the General Road Rescue Operations.

Work methodically in a high-risk environment (over-accident) & implement use of securing and extrication equipment

ACCESSIBILITY

 The schedule is drawn up with the customer.

 Contact us to find out how we can adapt our welcome and training to people with disabilities.

DURATION: 16h00

PRICE: € 9950
(including 2 meals on site)

PERFORMANCE

Satisfaction rate: 100%
Attendance rate: 100%
(For training courses in 2023)

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

Theoretical input
Practical training
Case studies

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Active participation
Evaluation grid

Together Creatives Skills
Centre d'entraînement international le-tcs.com/fr

Le Hameau de la Sucrierie
5 route de Laon
08190 Saint-Germainmont - France

Contact :
+33 (0)7 68 30 51 86
contact@le-tcs.com